Please discuss any specific religious, belief-based and/or cultural requirements that you have with the funeral director.

Additional Funeral Director Products And Services

The funeral director may be able to supply a range of optional, additional products and services, or to arrange (on your behalf) for a third party to supply them. Examples include:

Additional mileage (price per mile)	£2.00
-------------------------------------	-------

Additional transfers of the deceased person's body (e.g. to their home, to a place of worship etc.) (price per transfer)	Not Offered
---	-------------

Collection and delivery of cremated remains	£30.00
---	--------

Embalming	£1.00
-----------	-------

Funeral officiant (e.g. celebrant, minister of religion etc.)	£150.00-250.00
---	----------------

Services supplied outside of normal office hours	Price on Request
--	------------------

The funeral director can give you a full list of what they can supply.
They are likely to charge for these additional products and services, so you may choose to take care of some arrangements without their involvement, or you can use a different supplier.
The cemetery and crematorium costs are correct as of the day of printing and are subject to change.

¹This fee (which is sometimes called the interment fee) is the charge made for digging and closing a new grave, or for reopening and closing an existing grave.

²In England, Wales and Northern Ireland, you will usually need to pay a doctor as well. This is the charge for a doctor to sign the Medical Certificate for Cremation.
